- David Hutchings - President
 - Update rosters, Fran Miles will be leaving after Friday and process will become more difficult while her position is filled
 - UA President/VP elections are under way. IFC Exec will interview all the candidate pairs and provide brief synopses of their stance around Greek issues. Idea is not to endorse a candidate pair but inform the Greek community on where they stand – we will circulate the information to presidents next week after the interviews and before the elections
 - IRDF Community Network Upgrade is a massive overall of IT services in each residential FSILG. There is a deadline of March 31 to have the contract signed – check with your alumni board and/or Scott Klemm at FCI before then to ensure it's done and you don't lose out on thousands of dollars worth of "free" upgrades to chapter property
- Russell Rodewald - Vice President
 - Delegates Council next Wednesday at 7:30pm in W20-400. Topic will focus on risk management – only one hour, encourage chapter attendance
- Thomas Lipoma - JudComm
 - Changes to Judicial committee bylaws, refer to document with changes. Vote will be in 2 weeks to amend bylaws
- Ryan Andrews - Risk Manager
 - Register your parties!
 - Reread Risk Management Policy – ignorance is not an excuse if accused of violating RM policies
- Dave Stein – Recruitment
 - Update rush chair information with Fran Miles. Make sure you've transitioned rush chairs.
- Dan Chen – Program Development
 - Greek Week is coming up on April 26th. Have an active committee that will be planning on running the week.
 - Greek letter. We used to send it out in a physical form, but we are now moving to an electronic copy. We are trying to gain exposure to people who are not just Greeks. We looking to send out a Greek Letter once a month.
- Clark Minor – Executive Assistant
 - Dues collection – drop them off for Clark in IFC Office (W20-450) or FSILG Office (W20-549) by deadline on bill e-mailed out.
- Next meeting: March 18 at 7:30pm
 - Vote on Judicial Committee Bylaws
 - MIT Police will be in talking about their role and services
 - Chad Waxman from MIT Medical will be talking about Sexual Assault Awareness Week (April 5-10) they are looking for fraternities to help them out
 - Katie Maloney will be in from Alumni office to talk about Reid Weedon awards – deadline for applications is April 1, award is $7500
